

Introduction

- This is a website for a restaurant
- The home page there is the name of the restaurant in the header section and in
- The body part of the webpage contains the basic details about the menu and other things
- The footer contains the physical address of the restaurant as well as the links to the other section of the webpage and the social media links.
- About section of the website contain the employee of the restaurant .
- This web application gives the restaurant an online presence.

Expected List of Features

- This website can contain the menu section in details.
- An online order option can be added to the website so that people can order food from the comfort of their home.
- Adding online order option can help customers to buy things easily from the comfort of their home.

Market Survey

- Dafrancescos.com is a similar website like my website.
- Dedelicious.webflow.io is a similar website like my website.
- Dafrancescos.com has a section to book a reservation.
- These websites have some images but my website does not.
- My website can contain some images and it will add some extra beauty to my website.

References

- <https://dedelicious.webflow.io/>
- <https://dafrancescos.com/>